MORE THAN AN AWARD

The Pink & Black Honors is a premier black-tie awards gala where the BIPOC entrepreneur community and businesses who empower and align with the goals of BIPOC communities are elevated and celebrated.

On Saturday, June 22nd, 2024, the Pink & Black Honors gala will amplify the impact and importance of these innovative business founders with a night of networking, and an awards ceremony with celebrity and special guests.

Moreover, the event will serve as a space to educate, inform, and inspire the next generation of entrepreneurs.

Join us on Saturday, June 22nd, 2024, at Severance Hall, located at 11001 Euclid Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio 44106. Doors open at 4:00 PM.

Tabitha Brown, Hill Harper and Daymond John to present and speak at The Pink and Black Honors Hosted by Tenora Mia Edwards and The Pink Party

Celebrating and Elevating Multicultural Entrepreneurs Throughout Greater Cleveland

(CLEVELAND, OHIO) Tabitha Brown, Hill Harper and Daymond John are confirmed as the special celebrity guests and presenters at the first annual Pink and Black Honors event to be held in Cleveland, Ohio on June 10, 2023 at The Cleveland Orchestra Severance Hall.

Founded and curated by serial social entrepreneur and Cleveland based thought leader, Tenora Mia, the Pink & Black Honors is designed to elevate and celebrate multicultural entrepreneurs throughout greater Cleveland. The event will amplify the impact and importance of these innovative business founders with a night of networking, knowledge sharing with special guest speakers, and an awards ceremony with celebrity guests. Moreover, the event will serve as a space to educate, inform, and inspire the next generation of entrepreneurs.

Aside from the main event, educational workshops will be held at The Pink and Black Honors where attendees will gain business growth tools such as marketing and branding, financial planning and more. Leading up to the event, business owners will also be able to participate in a special pitch competition, where they can virtually pitch their innovative ideas. Winners will be recognized and awarded at the event in the presence of guest celebrities Daymond John.

According to the Brookings Institute, in Greater Cleveland, Black Americans make up 21.6% of the population but only 3% of employer-owned businesses. Further, a McKinsey & Co study found that nationally even though 20% of Black Americans start businesses, only 4% of these businesses survive the start-up stage.

AWARDS

The Honorable Pitch Awards competition proved to be a transformative opportunity for local entrepreneurs, offering them a platform to showcase their emerging businesses and receive invaluable feedback from a panel of seasoned professional business owners. This dynamic initiative not only provided a unique space for entrepreneurs to refine their pitches but also offered a tangible pathway to financial support.

The Honorable Pitch Awards not only evaluated the participating businesses but also backed them with substantial funding. The stakes were high, and the results were remarkable – entrepreneurs walked away not only with valuable insights from the seasoned panel but also with a substantial boost to their businesses, as they were collectively funded with over $25,000.00.
